WELCOME TO THE HEART OF MUNICH

A hotel for connoisseurs and aficionados

Right in the heart of Munich is a true gem of Bavarian hospitality: Hotel Schlicker “Zum Goldenen Löwen.” Mentioned as early as 1544 in Munich’s oldest land register, this stately property at Number 8 im Tal is a popular home away from home for connoisseurs and aficionados. The location alone makes it a wonderful place for an atmospheric stay in Munich. Within sight of Marienplatz, with its City Hall and world-famous Glockenspiel, and just a few minutes by foot from the Hofbräuhaus, Munich Residence, Opera House and the grandeur of Maximilianstraße. Right around the corner is the 200-year-old Viktualienmarkt, “Munich’s belly” – a gourmet paradise filled with colorful booths and an incomparable selection of culinary delicacies. Schlicker’s guests will find the hotel both contemporary and comfortable. The furnishings are tasteful and offer first-class comfort. From elegant single rooms and generous double rooms to an opulent suite, the hotel meets every possible need.

STAY AND ENJOY

Each of the 68 rooms is distinguished by its unique ambience, and they are all elevator-accessible. All rooms feature a bath and shower as well as phone, TV and wifi access. The reception desk is staffed 24 hours a day, and employees are available for guests' requests, questions and information. A fifth-generation family-run company, the hotel is now operated by Christine Stöhr, who works with her dedicated team to make sure every guest feels completely at home. With professional service. Confident and unobtrusive.

Hotel Schlicker offers its guests an elaborate breakfast buffet. And for guests who want to explore the Bavarian state capital by bike, bicycles are available for excursions. Both of these services are included in the cost of the room. Guests arriving by car can use the hotel's convenient inner courtyard parking. Its special atmosphere, combining tradition, modern convenience and attentive service, makes Hotel Schlicker one of the most attractive travel accommodations in downtown Munich.
